From Tuesday September 19. to Saturday September 23. 1727.

St. James's, September 23.

THE following humble Addreſs of the Right Reverend the Biſhop, the Vicars General, and the reſt of the Clergy of the Iſle of Man, was preſented to His Majeſty on the 5th Inſtant, by the Reverend Mr. Thomas Wilſon the ſaid Biſhop's Son, and the Reverend Mr. William Walker Vicar General of that Dioceſe, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly, and both the ſaid Gentlemen had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO accept of the humble Addreſs of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Biſhop, the Vicars General, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Man, who would be the moſt ungrateful of their Order, were they either inſenſible of the Loſs, or forgetful of the Favours of their late moſt gracious Sovereign; by whoſe Royal Bounty this Church did conſtantly receive ſuch an Addition to her Revenues as preſerved her Miniſters from Poverty and Contempt.

We ſhould be utterly unworthy of the Royal Protection, did we not ſincerely rejoice with the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, and acknowledge the Goodneſs of God in your Majeſty's happy Succeſſion. Our conſtant Endeavours ſhall be to recommend ourſelves to your Majeſty's Favour by a faithful Diſcharge of our Duty, and eſpecially by offering our moſt devout Prayers to Almighty God for your Majeſty's Proſperity: And that your Majeſty's Reign may be diſtinguiſhed by your rendring that Power and Authority, which your Majeſty has received from God, effectual for defending the Faith, extending its Influence to the remoteſt of your Dominions, eſtabliſhing the Kingdom of Chriſt, and ſuppreſſing that of Satan and the growing Vices of the Age; and that your Majeſty may be happy in your Royal Iſſue, in an obedient People, and in a full Aſſurance of an everlaſting Crown of Glory.

This being the only Tribute we can pay, we doubt not but your Majeſty will graciouſly accept it from your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, as a ſincere Teſtimony of their Allegiance and Fidelity.

They afterwards waited on the Queen, being introduced by Her Majeſty's Vice Chamberlain Mr. Smith, were very graciouſly received by Her Majeſty, and had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

The following humble Addreſs of the Corporation of Heddon, has been preſented to His Majeſty by William Pulteney, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Heddon, beg Leave, among the reſt of your Subjects who have a true Senſe of the Loſs this Kingdom has ſuſtained by the Death of your Royal Father, to expreſs our Sorrows on this melancholly Occaſion; and we do at the ſame Time congratulate your Majeſty upon your Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, to which no Prince ever yet ſucceeded with ſuch general Joy and Satisfaction.

The long Knowledge and many convincing Proofs which the whole Nation has had of your Majeſty's great Regard and tender Concern for the Religion, Laws and Liberties of theſe Kingdoms, ſufficiently confirm our Dependance upon your moſt gracious Declaration in Council; and as we have the ſtrongeſt Aſſu-

Aſſurance of being under your auſpicious Government a rich and happy People, ſo we hope to ſee your Majeſty the greateſt and moſt powerful of any of your Predeceſſors; beloved by all your Subjects at Home, and juſtly regarded as the Head and Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt Abroad.

The reſtoring our loſt Trade to its former flouriſhing Condition, the ſecuring to us our rightful Poſſeſſions of Port Mahon and Gibraltar, the paying of the National Debts, the reconciling our Diviſions, and the ſettling the Publick Tranquility of Europe, are Glories reſerved for your Majeſty's Reign; and as we are ſatisfied, that your known Courage and Reſolution will be always ſufficient to aſſert the Honour and Glory of this Nation, ſo your conſummate Wiſdom will ever conſult the true Intereſt of it.

May your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort long live to bleſs theſe Nations; and may your numerous Iſſue have the Virtues of both their Royal Parents united and blended in them, to make theſe Kingdoms happy to lateſt Poſterity.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, the 6th Day of July, 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Town-Clerk, and Burgeſſes of the Common-Council of the Borough of Bury St. Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Hervey and Col. Norton, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Clinton Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE deepeſt Sorrow and Concern that could afflict the Minds of your dutiful and loyal Subjects upon the ſudden and unexpected Loſs of your Majeſty's late Royal Father, is turned into Joy, upon the many Bleſſings we promiſe to ourſelves from the Earneſt already given us, during your Regency, of the mild and gentle Adminiſtration of your Government.

The making it your Pleaſure to acquaint yourſelf with the Laws of this Nation, and with the People which the Providence of God hath appointed you to govern, and your prudent Conduct in the leſſer Sphere of private Life, are ſure Preſages that Wiſdom and Goodneſs will be the Stability of your Time.

If your Royal Conſort's refuſing an Imperial Diadem for the Sake of ſupporting the Proteſtant Religion, hath been already rewarded with the Bleſſing of ſuch a Progeny as no Nation can boaſt of, can your dutiful Subjects expect leſs, than that they will fill your Throne with equal Honour, (when you, full of Years, and Fame and Glory, muſt be taken from us,) and be the Envy as well as the Admiration of the Nations about us?

The Sacred Aſſurance your Majeſty has been pleaſed to give of ſecuring to us, and our Poſterity, the Proteſtant Religion, together with our Laws and Liberties, (much dearer to us than our Lives) purchaſed with ſo much Blood and Treaſure, (and in the Defence of which even your Majeſty hath expoſed and hazarded your Royal Perſon) hath ſo united the Hearts of your dutiful and loyal Subjects in Intereſt and Affection to your Government, that we ſhall be wanting to ourſelves, as well as ungrateful to your Valour, and Love and Care of us, if we do not ſupport the Honour and Dignity of your Crown with our Lives and Fortunes, upon all Occaſions that require it.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall within the ſaid Burgh, the 6th Day of September, Anno Dom. 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Preſton, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Daniel Pulteney, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Herbert Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty the Death of your Royal Father, and at the ſame Time congratulate your Succeſſion to his Imperial Crowns. Your Majeſty and your Royal Iſſue are the beſt Conſolations to your Kingdoms for ſo great a Loſs, and ſecure to us and our Poſterity all the Bleſſings and Happineſs we have Reaſon to expect from the Government of your Auguſt Family. Your Majeſty's Declaration in Council of your Love to your Kingdoms, from your Knowledge and Experience of your Subjects, and your gracious Aſſurance, that the Preſervation of our Conſtitution in Church and State, ſhall be your chief Care, fill our Hearts with proper and due Sentiments of Gratitude and Affection. We were equally ſurprized and concerned at the Pretenſions of the Spaniards to Gibraltar, which they had not only given up to us by the Treaty of Utrecht, but further confirmed to us by their Acceſſion to the Quadruple Alliance: As we could never apprehend their taking it by Force, if properly ſupplied for a Defence; ſo we now aſſure ourſelves they will never be able to gain it by Treaty, notwithſtanding any Hopes wherewith they may flatter themſelves, ſelves, or any Promiſes they may pretend. That your Majeſty, for your own, and the Happineſs of your Subjects, may enjoy a long and proſperous Reign; be always bleſſed with Peace, or crowned with Victory, ſhall be the conſtant Prayer of,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been preſented to His Majeſty, who was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Aldermen, Grand Jury, Freeholders, and Citizens of the City of Limerick.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty the Loſs of our moſt gracious Sovereign, under whoſe auſpicious Reign our Religious and Civil Rights were preſerved inviolable, and the Power of the Britiſh Nation raiſed to the greateſt Pitch: The Loſs of ſuch a Prince muſt have been inſupportable, had not Providence opened to us a delightful Proſpect of future and greater Bleſſings, if poſſible, by giving us a Succeſſor who inherits all his Royal Virtues as well as his Dominions; and a Queen, that in her early Years preferred the Proteſtant Religion to an Imperial Diadem.

Permit us therefore, dread Sovereign, to congratulate your Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, and humbly to repreſent, that no Expreſſions can reach the Fulneſs of our loyal Hearts upon this great and joyful Occaſion.

The univerſal Approbation with which your Reign begins, is a ſure and happy Omen of a laſting Unanimity amongſt all your Subjects; and your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom, Experience and tried Valour, give us the utmoſt Aſſurances of all the Bleſſings the beſt of Subjects can deſire under your Adminiſtration.

May the Almighty bleſs your Majeſty with a long, a glorious and happy Reign over us; and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Off-ſpring to preſerve our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State; may all your Subjects be faithful and obedient, and may there be no Strife or Contention amongſt us, but who ſhall be moſt loyal and dutiful to ſo great a Sovereign.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Grand Jury, Clergy, Freemen and Freeholders of your Majeſty's Town and County of the Town of Galway in Ireland, aſſembled at the General Aſſizes held for the County of the ſaid Town, the 28th Day of July, 1727.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to declare our great Concern and Sorrow for the Death of our late gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majeſty on your Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, to wiſh you a glorious and a very long and proſperous Reign, and that there never may be wanting of your Family one to adorn and govern theſe Kingdoms.

We alſo beg Leave to joyn with the reſt of our Fellow Subjects in Thankſgiving to God for our excellent Queen, the Ornament of the Proteſtant Religion, from whoſe numerous and Royal Iſſue we have the pleaſing Views of long and laſting Felicity and Happineſs to theſe Kingdoms.

Theſe pleaſing and agreeable Proſpects, your Majeſty's early and diſtinguiſhing Manner of appearing for the Proteſtant Cauſe and the Liberties of Europe, your great and princely Virtues, with your Majeſty's Declaration from the Throne, muſt fill the Hearts of your People with Joy and Gladneſs, being aſſured of a firm and full Enjoyment of their Religion, Liberties and Properties, under your Majeſty's Adminiſtration.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſincere Loyalty, Fidelity and Obedience, of our hearty Affection for the Conſtitution in Church and State, the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe; and that we will adhere to and aſſiſt your Majeſty with our Lives and Fortunes againſt all Pretenders and Oppoſers whatſoever; and in Teſtimony thereof, we have hereunto ſubſcribed our Names, and affixed the common Seal of this your Majeſty's very ancient and loyal Corporation.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Burgeſſes and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's faithful Subjects of your ancient and loyal Corporation of Drogheda, humbly beg Leave to expreſs the juſt Senſe we have of the great Loſs of their late moſt gracious Sovereign your Royal Father; and to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, and to offer your Majeſty the humble Aſſurances of their Duty, Fidelity and Affection to your ſacred Perſon and Government.

As the Experience theſe Nations have had of your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, Juſtice and Clemency in Government, gave them the moſt reaſonable Hopes and Expectations, ſo your Majeſty's publick and moſt gracious Declaration claration gives us the utmoſt Aſſurance of the full Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights during your Reign; and we doubt not but your numerous Iſſue will continue thoſe Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, to lateſt Poſterity.

This happy Proſpect fills our Hearts with inexpreſſible Joy, and as it claims the moſt publick Acknowledgments from all your Subjects, we beg Leave in the moſt ſolemn Manner to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be ready, on all Occaſions, to venture our Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Majeſty's undoubted Title, and the Succeſſion to the Crown in your Royal and moſt illuſtrious Family: And we heartily pray, that no other Diſtinction may be found among your Majeſty's Subjects, than of thoſe who ſhall contribute with moſt Zeal to the Support of your Majeſty's Government, and to make your Reign as eaſy and glorious to your Majeſty, as we are ſure to find it proſperous and happy to your People.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our common Seal, this 14th of July 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, High Steward, and the reſt of the ancient Corporation of Southwould, in the County of Suffolk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Betts, Eſq; High-Steward, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your faithful Subjects, humbly preſume to approach your Sacred Majeſty's Preſence, and deſire Leave to condole with you upon the Death of your Royal Father; and alſo to congratulate you upon your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms. It is with the higheſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction we read your Declaration, and Speech from the Throne; and that we hear from all Parts the univerſal Joys and Acclamations of your Subjects for your happy Acceſſion. We humbly and heartily aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, ſtand by your Majeſty and all your Royal Family: And we earneſtly pray, that your Reign may be long over us, and that your Days may be entirely happy; and you, and your Royal Off-ſpring, may rule the Kingdom of Great Britain until Time ſhall be no more.

Given under our Common Seal, this 16th Day of July, Anno Dom. 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, in the County of Cornwall, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Falmouth their Recorder, and Edward Vernon, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of our late gracious Sovereign your Royal Father;

Whoſe Loſs only can be repaired to us by your Majeſty's peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors:

And that your Reign may be long and proſperous, ſhall be the conſtant and fervent Prayers of,

Your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Roſs, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Unto the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders conveened in the Presbytery of Paiſley.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Presbytery of Paiſley, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that it was with the greateſt Joy we received the happy News of your aſcending the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors; as we offer our heartieſt Praiſes to Heaven, that this great Event was no more attended with ours, than with the loud and joyful Acclamations of all your good Subjects.

Great Sir, this is the only thing on Earth that could have ſupported our Minds under that heavieſt Load of Grief which the Death of your Royal Father brought upon us, a King for ever of bleſſed Memory to all true Proteſtants, but eſpecially to the Church of Scotland; and indeed, if any Comfort below the Sun, except your Majeſty's immediate and peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne, were ſufficient to relieve us from that Sorrow, we might be juſtly accounted Men void of Senſe and Gratitude; for did not Righteouſneſs and Aboundance of Peace flouriſh in his Day? Yet though the Ornaments of his Government were many, and all of them great, if greater Meaſures of Glory can ſhine in any Reign in this World, we rejoyce in the Hope that these by the King of Heaven are reserved for your's.

Your Majesty has already given us the best Ground for this Hope, by your wise Conduct and Goodness, when the Administration was before in your Princely Hands; What and the late Expressions of your Majesty's great and affectionate Designs to make your People happy in your Love and Royal Care, must fill them with the greatest Prospect and Thankfulness. This, Sir, is the Influence which your early Regard to the Laws shall ever have on us, who are Part of that Church which is so devoted to your Family and Government, that in Defence of both they reckon no earthly Thing too dear or dangerous.

We adore the Divine Goodness for the great Blessing bestowed upon your Majesty in your Royal Consort the Queen. How well prepar'd to be a nursing Mother to the Church of Christ must a Princess be, who in her tender Age itself, when the World's Arguments are strongest, did for her Religion defy all its Temptations! Blessed be God, who shews her Majesty the happy Effects of the Christian Faith and Patience, by raising her to share in the Glories of your Crown, of all on Earth the most useful to God and Mankind. We rejoyce in your Majesty's Royal Off-spring, and that already the bright Virtues of his Royal Parents are coming fast to a remarkable Maturity in his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

That God may long preserve your Majesty to reign happily over us and all your Dominions; that He may pour down His richest Blessings on our gracious Queen; and eminently bless his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and all your Royal Issue; and for ever maintain the Succession to your Crown in your Royal Protestant Family, is, and shall while our Breath remains, be the sincere Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most humble Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Paisley.

Signed in our Presence, in our Name, and at our Appointment, by Neil Campbell, Moderator.

By the King,

A PROCLAMATION,

For adjourning the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty, and of His Royal Consort the Queen.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twelfth Day of August last, We did (amongst other things) Publish and Declare Our Royal Intention to celebrate the Solemnity of Our Royal Coronation, and of the Coronation of Our most dearly beloved Consort the Queen, upon Wednesday the Fourth Day of October next, at our Palace at Westminster: And whereas for divers weighty Reasons, thereunto moving us, We have thought fit to adjourn the said Solemnity to Wednesday the Eleventh Day of the said Month of October; on which Day We have resolved, by the Favour and Blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the same at Our said Palace at Westminster; We do by this Our Royal Proclamation give Notice of and publish our Resolution therein. And We do hereby further signify to all Our loving Subjects whom it may concern, That all Persons, of what Rank or Quality soever they be, who either upon Our Letters to them directed, or by Reason of their Offices or Tenures, or otherwise, are to do any Service at the Time of such Coronation, are discharged from their Attendance on Wednesday the said Fourth Day of October. And Our Royal Will and Pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all such Persons, that they do duely give their Attendance at the said Solemnity on Wednesday the Eleventh Day of October next, in all Respects furnished and appointed as to so great a Solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the Dignities and Places which every one of them respectively holdeth and enjoyeth; and of this they or any of them are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their Perils, unless upon special Reasons by Our Self under Our own Sign Manual to be allowed, We shall dispense with any of their Services or Attendances.

Given at Our Court at Kensington, the 20th Day of September 1727, in the First Year of Our Reign.

God Save the KING.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 20th Day of September, 1727.

PRESENT,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty having this Day thought fit to dissolve the Privy Council, and at the same Time to appoint a new one, all the Lords and others present were thereupon sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took their Places at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty was then pleased to declare his Grace William Duke of Devonshire Lord President of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

Edward Southwell, James Vernon, Robert Hales, and Temple Stanyan, Esqrs. were at the same Time, by His Majesty's Command, sworn Clerks of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council in Ordinary.

As were likewise Walter Carey, Thomas Greenwood, and William Sharpe, Esqrs. Clerks in Extraordinary.

Ken

Kenſington, September 21.

This Morning the King went from hence to Northall Common, where the Regiments of Horſe commanded by the Duke of Bolton, Lord Viſcount Cobham, and Lieutenant General Wade, paſſed in Review before His Majeſty, and made a very fine Appearance: In the Afternoon His Majeſty returned hither.

THESE are to give Notice to all the Peereſſes that are to attend in the Royal Proceeding to their Majeſties Coronation on the 11th of October next, That the Robe or Mantle of a Baroneſs is to be of Crimſon Velvet, the Cape whereof to be Furr'd with Meniver pure, and Powdered with two Bars or Rows of Ermine, the ſaid Mantle to be edged round with Meniver pure two Inches in Breadth, and the Train to be three Foot on the Ground; her Coronet to be according to her Degree, viz. a Rim or Circle with ſix Pearls upon the ſame, not raiſed upon Points. That the Robe or Mantle of a Viſcounteſs be like that of a Baroneſs, only the Cape powder'd with two Rows and a half of Ermine, the Edging of the Mantle two Inches, as before, and the Train a Yard and a Quarter; her Coronet to be according to her Degree, viz. a Rim or Circle with Pearls thereon, Sixteen in Number, and not raiſed upon Points. That the Mantle of a Counteſs, be as before, only the Cape powder'd with three Rows of Ermine, the Edging three Inches in Breadth, and the Train a Yard and a half; her Coronet to be compoſed of eight Pearls raiſed upon Points or Rays, with ſmall Leaves between above the Rim. That the Mantle of a Marchioneſs be as before, only the Cape powder'd with three Rows and a half of Ermine, the Edging four Inches in Breadth, the Train a Yard and three Quarters; her Coronet to be compoſed of four Leaves and four Pearls raiſed upon Points of the ſame Height as the Leaves, alternately, above the Rim. And that the Mantle of a Dutcheſs be as before, only the Cape powder'd with four Rows of Ermine, the Edging five Inches broad, the Train two Yards; her Coronet to be compoſed of eight Leaves, all of equal Height, above the Rim. The Surcoats or Kirtles to be all of Crimſon Velvet, cloſe bodied, and claſped before, edged or bordered with Meniver pure two Inches broad, and ſcallop'd down the Sides from below the Girdle, and ſloped away into a Train proportionable to the Length of the Robe or Mantle for each Degree, viz. about a third Part thereof; the Sleeves of the Surcoats alſo to be of Crimſon Velvet, about five Inches deep, ſcallop'd at the Bottom, edged with Meniver pure, and fringed with Gold or Silver. The Caps of their Coronets to be all of Crimſon Velvet turned up with Ermine, with a Button and Taſſel of Gold or Silver on the Top ſuitable to the Fringe of their Sleeves. The Petticoats to be of Cloth of Silver, or any other white Stuff, either laced or embroidered, according to each Perſon's Fancy. The Mantles to hang back, being faſtened on each Shoulder with Cordons of Silver or Gold ſuitable to their Fringe, with Taſſels of the ſame hanging on each Side down the Waſte. The Surcoats or Kirtles to open before, that the Petticoats may appear. And it is likewiſe His Majeſty's Pleaſure, that all and every the Peers and Peereſſes who ſhall attend the ſaid Coronation, do forbear to ſet or uſe any Jewels or precious Stones in their Coronets. And whereas Coachmakers, Carvers, Embroiderers, Painters, Silverſmiths, and other Artificers, do preſume (both upon Coaches and in making the Coronets for this preſent Coronation) to raiſe the Pearls of the Barons and Baroneſſes Coronets upon Pins or Spikes, (whereas they ought to be flat upon the Rim or Ring of the Coronet): This is to warn all ſuch Workmen from the like Error, and to enjoyn and order them to take care to make all ſuch Coronets exactly as they are allowed to be worn by the Grant from King Charles the Second, of bleſſed Memory, as they will anſwer the contrary at their Perils.

And it is alſo ordered, That no Perſon whatſoever ſhall preſume to print or publiſh any Account or Relation of the ſaid Coronation, Ceremonial, or any Part thereof, without my Licence. Suſſex, M.
